

visit MADISON county, ny

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 4, 2026

Contact: Nikita Jankowski

315-706-4443, nikita@belesai.com

The Hunt Begins: Madison-Bouckville June Antique Show Kicks Off This Week Along Historic Route 20

New York's Legendary Antique Destination Opens Summer Season June 5–7 with New Show Fields, 400+ Dealers, and Three Events Across the 2026 Season

BOUCKVILLE, N.Y. | June 4, 2026 — Antique lovers, collectors, and treasure hunters take note: the 2026 Madison-Bouckville annual antique season officially launches this week!

- Date: June 5–7, 2026
- Times: Gates open daily from 8 AM to 5 PM
- Location: Along the two-mile stretch of historic Route 20 through Madison and Bouckville, New York.

This weekend's June show marks the first of three major antique events Madison County will celebrate this year.

What's New in 2026:

Featuring over 400 dealers showcasing antiques, vintage collectibles, primitives, estate jewelry, advertising memorabilia, furniture, quilts, Pyrex, and countless one-of-a-kind finds, the June Show delivers the same world-class experience as August's flagship event — with a more relaxed pace and smaller crowds. It's the insider's version of Bouckville.

For those in the know, the June Show is the season's hidden gem. Dealers from across the country — California, Virginia, Kentucky, Maryland, and throughout New York — arrive with fresh inventories eager for early buyers. Without the shoulder-to-shoulder crowds of Antique Week, serious collectors can take their time, negotiate freely, and move quickly on choice finds. Food trucks are on-site, and year-round antique shops and co-ops throughout the region remain open daily during the event. Enjoy free parking exclusively for the June Show!

The Madison-Bouckville antique season offers three distinct opportunities to experience one of the country's premier outdoor antique destinations:

June Show — June 5–7, 2026: The season opener. Over 400 dealers, free parking, and all the charm of Bouckville without the August crowds. An ideal entry point for first-timers and a must for early-season buyers.

Antique Week — August 9–15, 2026: New York State's largest outdoor antique event. More than 2,000 dealers line both sides of Route 20 across a two-mile stretch, transforming Madison County's rolling countryside into a treasure hunter's paradise. Visitors travel from across the globe — including international buyers sourcing inventory for shops in France and England — to attend this week-long celebration of antiques and collectibles.

Holiday Stroll — November 6–8, 2026: A festive late-season event perfect for holiday gifting and unique finds as the countryside transitions to late fall.

Together, the three shows form a complete season for antique enthusiasts, offering something for every collector — from casual weekend browsers to seasoned dealers stocking their showrooms.

The June Show is free and open to the public. Visitors are encouraged to arrive early, wear comfortable shoes, and bring cash. For dealer registration, show maps, and event details, visit madison-bouckvillepromotions.com. For Madison County travel inspiration, visit www.visitmadisonny.com.

###

About Madison County Tourism

Visit Madison County, NY is the official Tourism Promotion Agency (TPA) of Madison County, New York, promoting the region's natural beauty, rich heritage, and diverse attractions for over 30 years. As a designated New York State TPA, the organization promotes more than 300 attractions across the county. According to Tourism Economics, tourism generated $146.4 million in direct visitor spending in Madison County in 2024.

Nestled in the heart of Central New York, Madison County is where adventure seekers, history buffs, antique lovers, foodies, and couples searching for the perfect wedding destination all find their place. Home to Chittenango Falls, the International Boxing Hall of Fame, the National Abolition Hall of Fame and Museum, Oz-Stravaganza®, and the legendary Madison-Bouckville Antique Week, Madison County delivers authentic experiences and small-town charm that keep visitors coming back. Plan your visit at www.visitmadisonny.com.